

Join us again for... Hearing Loss Jeopardy

In this month's QUIZ you have to respond with the questions to the given answers. Your response will always begin with “What...” or “Who...” Have fun – and as always no cheating!! 😊

Special thanks for this month's quiz goes to:

Margaret Barnett, SAA President
Audiology-School of Medicine
University of Louisville

1. A: Hearing loss caused by damage to the cells within the inner ear that is permanent in nature.
2. A: A government funded agency that provides individualized services for those having difficulties due to disabilities, including those with hearing impairment, within a workplace environment
3. A: Various types of this instrument include in-the-ear styles, in-the-canal, and behind-the-ear styles, designed to amplify speech while reducing environmental sound.
4. A: A device that is used in conjunction with hearing aids to stream media from devices such as telephones, televisions, and computers.
5. A: A device that is surgically implanted when hearing aids fail to meet the hearing needs of an adult with a moderate sloping to profound hearing loss, or a child with a profound hearing loss.
6. A: A program designed to help and train people with hearing loss hear better when background noise is present.
7. A: Noise that is perceivably present in the absence of environmental sound.
8. A: A form of rehabilitation that exists for people who experience “ringing of the ears”, which includes teaching a person how to cope with and mask the ringing
9. A: When a person with hearing loss uses both auditory and visual cues to increase their speech understanding ability.
10. A: A graphical representation of a hearing loss that shows the degree, type, and symmetry of a person's hearing ability.

Scroll to page 3 to see how many you got correct ...

1. What is sensorineural hearing loss?

Q: Hearing loss caused by damage to the cells within the inner ear that is permanent in nature.

2. What is vocational rehabilitation?

Q: A government funded agency that provides individualized services for those having difficulties due to disabilities, including those with hearing impairment, within a workplace environment

3. What is a hearing aid?

Q: Various types of this instrument include in-the-ear styles, in-the-canal, and behind-the-ear styles, designed to amplify speech while reducing environmental sound.

4. What is a Bluetooth streamer?

Q: A device that is used in conjunction with hearing aids to stream media from devices such as telephones, televisions, and computers.

5. What is a cochlear implant?

Q: A device that is surgically implanted when hearing aids fail to meet the hearing needs of an adult with a moderate to severe hearing loss, or a child with a profound hearing loss.

6. What is LACE training?

Q: A program designed to help and train people with hearing loss hear better when background noise is present.

7. What is tinnitus?

Q: Noise that is perceivably present in the absence of environmental sound.

8. What is tinnitus retraining therapy?

Q: A form of rehabilitation that exists for people who experience “ringing of the ears”, which includes teaching a person how to cope with and mask the ringing

9. What is lip-reading or speech reading?

Q: When a person with hearing loss uses both auditory and visual cues to increase their speech understanding ability.

10. What is an audiogram?

Q: A graphical representation of a hearing loss that shows the degree, type, and symmetry of a person’s hearing ability.